

Advocacy Panels

“2022 Legislative Agenda and Session Updates”

Michele Thomas, Director of Policy and Advocacy and Nick Federici, Housing Alliance Lobbyist

To help prepare you for your district meetings, they will offer a brief on the Housing Alliance lead agenda, updates, advocacy tips and all the ways you can help pass important bills this year.

“Creating Change through Lived Experiences”

Resident Action Project members Kristen Hunt, Ellen Conrad, Mindy Woods, and Mercedes White Calf

These community leaders will share how their lived experience inspired them to be at decision-making tables, and why it is important for people impacted by systems to be the creators of solutions and use their voice to advocate for change.

“Black Trans Representation in Law & Policy”

Ganesha Gold Buffalo, Ebo Barton, and Bryan Duncan from Lavender Rights Project

This training workshop will guide community advocates, advisors to lawmakers, and stakeholders on how to take better action toward Black Trans advocacy, reform, equity, and justice in the fields of Law and Policy, particularly around housing and homelessness.
